LOCATION:

Situated in the heart of Costa Smeralda between the Gulf of Pevero and the Bay of Cala di Volpe, the Pevero Golf Club represents an ideal year round destination thanks to the weather, which is perfect for winter golf. Well linked to all the Italian and European cities, the Costa Smeralda is located 30 Km from Olbia Airport, 170 Km from Fertilia Airport (Alghero) and about 300 Km from Elmas Airport (Cagliari). The nearest harbours are located in Olbia and Golfo Aranci.

HISTORY:

Designed in 1967 by Robert Trent Jones and opened in 1972, the 18 holes, Par 72 course cover a surface of almost 60 hectares. The course includes several natural lakes, granite rocks and the typical Mediterranean vegetation and has hosted a lot of important competitions like the Italia Open in 1978.

GOLF COURSE OVERVIEW:

The Pevero Golf Club belongs to the Qatar Holding and forms together with the luxury Hotels (Cala di Volpe, Romazzino, Pitrizza and Hotel Cervo) the Costa Smeralda brand. The Pevero Golf is considered by experts to be one of the world's most beautiful and challenging course, where even the most experienced golfer will be put to the test. It is classified in the 100 Top Golf of the world.

IN ADDITION: Nearby the Golf Club, available for yachtsman, Porto Cervo Marina offers services to meet all needs of large yachts moored at the Touristic port. Very close to the beautiful and crystalline beaches of Costa Smeralda (Liscia Ruja, Celvia, Grande Pevero, Capriccioli etc.) Porto Cervo gives the opportunity to go shopping in the many boutiques from the most important brands; the night life is spread around the city centre in the most important and renowned restaurant and pubs. The area surrounding the Costa Smeralda Consortium is full of archaeological sites, a very good alternative to the beaches. Although this area has developed considerably over the past fifty years, it has maintained intact its culinary tradition by offering food and wine tours of the most searched in Italy.
